Loving God, Following Jesus, Serving Others

DEAR CHURCH FAMILY,

What wondrous love is this! That we, broken and undeserving, are now called righteous in Christ. As we journey through this season, may our hearts be stirred afresh. May we stand in awe of the Cross, not as an instrument of death, but as the gateway to eternal life. And may we live in the fullness of His grace, knowing that because He lives, we too shall live.

With love and blessings, brothers Mark & Harris

As we enter this sacred season, we remember the most powerful moment in history—the Resurrection of Jesus. Easter is more than a holiday; it is the core of our faith, proclaiming that death has been conquered and salvation won through God's boundless love.

The Cross, once a symbol of shame, now represents God's mercy. Though our sin demanded justice, God sent His Son, Jesus—fully God and fully man—to bear our sins. On the Cross, He declared, "It is finished," breaking sin's hold and restoring our relationship with the Father.

How do we respond? We believe. In Jesus, the risen Lamb and reigning King, we are made new—living lives shaped by grace and filled with His presence.

This season, may we stand in awe of the Cross, not as death's tool but as the path to life. Because He lives, we live. Let Easter be more than a day—accept Christ's open invitation and step into His redeeming love.

Brother Mark
